

Women's Temple Group Listing Guidelines

Thank you for your request to have your Women's Temple Group added to the Awakening Women Institute (AWI) Temple Group network on our website: www.AwakeningWomen.com.

Our guidelines for listing:

- You have participated in at least one AWI event.
- You have read the "Create Your Own Women's Temple Group" manual published by AWI and understand the intentions and culture of a Temple Group.

What we expect from you:

- We ask that you inform the women in your Temple Group about AWI events.
- Share with the women about your experience with AWI (the work, the seminars, etc.).
- Write about the affect AWI work has had for you (we may publish this on our blog).
- Write about what it was like for you to start the women's group and what you have learned. We will publish these in our newsletter and/or on our website.
- From time to time we will send you an AWI flyer, and we would be very grateful if you would like to support the dissemination of our work as an energy exchange for us listing your Temple group on our site.

It is up to you whether you call your group "Temple Group" or give it another name. We ask that you please respect that "Awakening Women" is a registered trademark and not to use this term for your group name. Thank you for understanding.

If you use text from the manual or AWI website to describe your group, please remember to credit the source of the text with a weblink to our website. Also, please do not use the photos on the AWI website, they are protected under the copyright law.

Please fill out the application form and send it to: info@awakeningwomen.com.
